Minutes of February 18 Meeting Approved

BUSINESS:

Events:

Stars and Stripes Soiree – July 3, 2026

Name Liberty Ball has been changed by vote of the Committee to “Stars and Stripes Soiree.” We will have a banner on Lounsbury House for the event.

Party in the Park! -July 4, 2026

We have received permission from the town to close Gilbert Street from 10 to 3. (Our event is scheduled to run 10-2.) Pamme is drawing up a notice to the neighbors. Committee members will meet with Hildi to discuss activities for that day and build out the event with her input

DAR Parade April 25.

Committee members will march. Banners are being produced that can be used for this parade and Memorial Day parade.

Women’s Forum March 27

Committee members will be attending and will have a table. Attendees will staff the table. Our merchandise will be available. Our Co-Chair Pamme Jones will be an honoree.

Museum in the Streets.

As a lasting record of our Committee’s contribution to the town, the Committee would like to create and install one sign documenting the event. Additionally, the Committee will consider refurbishing existing signs. Pamme will investigate process.

Wishing Wall.

Hildi and team will set it up indoors at Town Hall. Exact location has to be determined, but hopefully on the first floor. We suggested having Board members read them, perhaps one a day, for social media.

Town Banners.

Pamme has banners and will be hanging them this Friday at 10, with Saturday as a rain date. Helpers should meet in Starbucks parking lot.

Vintage Base Ball Game

Town has approved our arranging for a Vintage Base Ball Game at Veteran's Park field after the Parade Memorial Day.

Group Photo.

Group Photo will be taken at our next meeting.

Next Meeting March 18 in person at Town Hall Annex.

Meeting ended at 8:37.

Respectfully submitted,

Sara Champion
Secretary
